

The following terms are additional to the standard XENON Terms which can be found at <https://xenon.com.au/terms-and-conditions/>

This sheet explains important aspects of the XENON Cloud Storage Powered by Wasabi. Please be sure you have read and understood these Additional Terms and Conditions before starting your service.

Reserved Capacity Service (RCS)

XENON Cloud Storage Powered by Wasabi, is a cloud based S3 storage service with a set amount of TB of Reserved Capacity and generally a 1 year term.

- You have paid for the reservation of this capacity for the term, whether you use it or not.
- You may use more than your reserved capacity, and will be liable for the usage in excess of your RCS. You will be billed monthly in arrears for this usage and charged at a per TB rate. Failure to pay any additional usage fees may cause Account Suspension.
- You can increase your RCS amount at any time, and either extend your contract term or have the additional capacity co-termed to the original term.

As this Service leverages the Wasabi infrastructure, you accept that XENON is not liable for any changes to the infrastructure, changes to charges, or any Wasabi outages.

Fees and charges

XENON provides transparent and best pricing possible for the service. Wasabi charges us in USD, and therefore the fees you are charged may vary depending on the current exchange rate.
